

Awaking Wonder

London

LEARN:

Read or listen to a book together about a reformer or missionary in London. William Wilberforce and Elizabeth Fry biographies from YWAM are good places to start.

CREATE:

Make an iconic London Bus or craft a cute London guard.

Create a simple Union Jack (flag) from construction paper or markers. Use these crafts for some make believe or to act along as you read some of the suggested books.

EXPLORE:

Explore some of London's amazing museums from the comfort of your own home. The British Museum, National Gallery, and Natural History museums all have online tours.

READ AND DISCUSS:

Earth has not any thing to show more fair:
Dull would he be of soul who could pass by
A sight so touching in its majesty:
This City now doth, like a garment, wear
The beauty of the morning; silent, bare,
Ships, towers, domes, theatres, and temples lie
Open unto the fields, and to the sky;
All bright and glittering in the smokeless air.
Never did sun more beautifully steep
In his first splendour, valley, rock, or hill;
Ne'er saw I, never felt, a calm so deep!
The river glideth at his own sweet will:
Dear God! the very houses seem asleep;
And all that mighty heart is lying still!

Composed upon Westminster Bridge, Sept. 3, 1802
