

Can you believe we've reached the end of this study? It's been a gift to dive into Hebrews and so many of the heroes of faith, being inspired and challenged to live by faith. What points are you pondering from this study that you'd like to remember?

We live in the tension of wanting to return to the law versus loving God and living by faith. The writer of Hebrews was reminding the Hebrew people not to return to a legalistic following of the law (and formulas), but to rely on God and walk with Him through life. In what areas are you tempted to "return to the law" or try to find a formula? Ask the Lord to give you courage to walk by faith, trusting His spirit to guide you and walk alongside you.

Sally shared some of her favorite portions of Hebrews.

What did you learn about God’s kingdom by reading through these verses? What jumped out to you most about His kingdom? Where can you apply that in your everyday life?

Near the end of Hebrews, the author gives an admonition to remember. It is a call to listen to God. Read Hebrews 12:18-28. What stands out to you? How does this call apply to your life?

As we finish Hebrews, spend a few moments contemplating what the Lord has revealed to you through His Word.
