Secrets of Training Your Children

Sally Clarkson

In this Bible Study, Sally and Katie discuss training children.

In what ways have you viewed training your children as a formula to follow? How can you reorient your vision to a relationship focused investment built by little moments over time?

Training is a process and begins with instruction, has to be modeled, and has to have an opportunity for the child to practice what they are taught over a long period of time. How can you see your child as a unique individual and create opportunities to connect and understand him/her and teach these principles?

Katie shares about the simple yet profound practice of teaching her child to memorize the Lord's Prayer. You can print the provided pdf of the Lord's prayer or other scripture and set aside time to read, discuss, and memorize the verses.

Training is learning a new skill, practicing it, and becoming strong at it. What are some areas where you would like to grow as a mother, woman, wife, friend? How can you model the patterns for your children for the goals you want to achieve?
