Fall is a season of resolve. It is a time to ask the Lord what He wants you to do, to set your intentions, and to accept His freedom and grace in your life.

God is a God of freedom, grace, and redemption. In what parts of your life are you living under a burden of others' laws, guilt, or condemnation?

It was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery. Galatians 5:1

Read 1 Peter 2: 18- 3:5, Romans 8: 1, Prov. 15: 1, John 21: 15-17, Romans 2:4, and 2 Cor. 5:17. In what ways can you apply these verses in relation to your children? Where can you extend and communicate grace, freedom, and redemption?

During the season of fall, in what areas do you need to cling to His hope, to choose resilience, and to ponder Christ? Pray that the Lord give you resolve to walk forward in faith.

Ponder Christ. -Sally
