

Motherhood
Heart Shaping with Culture

Sally Clarkson

In this legacy talk, Sally explores what it means to celebrate life in our homes and to create a culture of love.

How would your children describe the culture of your home?

All people need: a safe place, words of affirmation, affection and intimacy, time. What is God calling you to focus on in your home this month?

Look up ten verses about love and ponder how God's love can influence your family culture.
