

Giving the Gift of a Storyformed Life

1. Introduce Scripture to children as a “beautiful and epic narrative.” How might you express this to your children in your home?
2. Literature is powerful in shaping our hearts in alignment with Scripture. What literature do you want to use to fill your children’s minds with the ideas of Scripture?
3. As a parent, you are a storyteller! You have power to shape the character and imagination of him/her.

Parts of a story and of childhood:

Exposition

Rising Action

Crisis

Falling Action

Denouement