

Motherhood

Your Optimistic Spirit Matters

Sally Clarkson

There are consequences to a fallen world. Our children need us to live faithfully through difficulties to show them how they can remain faithful in their own difficulties. What are you doing in front of your children? Your actions and attitude matter!

What adjectives would you like to be described as?

How are you acting as a faithful witness in front of your child? What stumbling blocks do you need to overcome?

Read the following verses and pray that God will reveal how your attitude (optimistic spirit) matters in your family.

2 Tim. 2:2

Prov. 31:25

Psalm 118

Phil. 4:4

Psalm 27:5