

Romans 8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation for those who are in Christ Jesus who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

When we sin, we needn't be surprised. What do you need to lay at the feet of Jesus today in order to walk in His assurance?

Take some time to read through the book of Esther and ponder the ways in which she was royalty. How does our royalty compare to that of Esther's?

What does it look like to live into our royal heritage?

How can you exercise graciousness to those around you? How can you choose to be the person who extends love and grace?

Queen Elizabeth is a lovely example of care and service to those that she is called to lead. How is she an inspiration to you in your home and friendships?