Mom Walk - Celebrating Life in the Day to Day

Sally Clarkson

Where are you walking through a difficult time? Did you make a poor choice? Get angry and act unkindly? God will forgive you for that! How can you find a point of joy in order to celebrate in the midst of those feelings?

Sally shares many different ways that she looks for and finds joy in her day-to-day life. Where can you find joy right now? This very moment? Can you see/hear/smell/feel something that is a source of joy? Thank God for that. If your children are with you, speak that thankfulness aloud so that they can thank Him too!

Plan a special (yet ordinary) celebration for your family in the next month. Sleep under the stars? Fancy homemade brunch? A trip to the zoo to celebrate God's creativity? Streamers and balloons just because? Watch and listen for your children's reactions to this special memory together.
