

Sally Clarkson

Introduction

1. Keeping Your Eyes on Heaven

2. Embracing God's Design

Sometimes we feel as if we are in great distress and the walls have fallen down. (Nehemiah 2) Take some time to read through the book of Nehemiah this month and note what you resonate with. Have the walls of culture and family fallen down around you? Don't despair- God has new walls for you to help build. Pray over what part He is calling you to and who might be standing on either side of you.

3. Feeding on God's Word

Are you feeding on God's word regularly? This is our source of inspiration, courage, and hope. Begin today to ingest some of God's word daily.

4. Committing Regular Time to Prayer

Daniel is a wonderful example of prayer to us. Are you casting your cares upon the Lord? Are you praying for everything that is in your soul?

5. Actively Making Choices of Faith

What are some active choices of faith that you can make in your circumstances? Is it believing the Lord for something impossible? Or is it washing one more dish or gently correcting one more child? Is it walking forward in faith yourself even as you are burdened by anxiety?

Lord, I will trust you for this moment, for this day. I will trust you because this is my chance to be faithful to your story. I am waiting for you in the darkest night of my soul. I am going deep down to the bottom of my heart and giving myself wholeheartedly to your love and waiting for you.

6. Determining to Endure with God's Supernatural Grace

You have agency to make a choice to keep going with God's grace! Where do you need to determine to endure?

Conclusion

God will raise an army of women to rebuild the walls! Will you join us?